

The Yugoslav Crisis

international responses and the way forward an international conference on the anniversary of NATO's attack on Yugoslavia

University of Bradford 25-26 March 2000 1000am

a weekend of debate, discussion, theatre, film, music, Yugoslav wine and food - and a silent candlelit vigil in central Bradford Friday night

Keynote Speakers

Rev. Dr. Paul Oestriecher

International Consultant, Coventry Cathedral

Bob Marshall Andrews QC MP

Paul Watson

Balkans Bureau Chief, Los Angeles Times

Father Sava

Decani Monastery, Kosovo

Larry Hollingsworth

former head of UNHCR, Bosnia

Stephen Henthorne

Defence Consultant

Felicity Arbuthnot

Journalist

Defense Studies Foundation, Louisiana

Royal United Services Institute

Seminars and Workshops

International and Strategic Issues - the Aid and NGO Response - Challenging Nationalism - the Economic Dimension - Culture and the Yugoslav Wars - Direct Aid and Community Development - Conflict Prevention and Resolution - Women and Peacework - Local Government, Town Twinning and Peacebuilding - Environmental Destruction

Staffed by experts from Russia to the US via Yugoslavia, Germany, Belgium... and of course Britain

Details from (01484)329203 or (01484) 666719, x10584@bradford.ac.uk, pamal@magdale.ndo.co.uk, volp@tande.com - <http://www.brad.ac.uk/acad/rusees/conference.html> organised by the West Yorkshire Committee for Peace in the Balkans and the Research Unit in South East European Studies, University of Bradford in association with City of Bradford Metropolitan Council Supported by Pax Christi - CND - International Voluntary Service - National Peace Council - Refugee Action - Northern Refugee Centre - Anglican Pacifist Fellowship - United Nations Association - ECRE/ICVA Reference Group on Former Yugoslavia, led by the UK Refugee Council