

Second session
Geneva, 10-21 July 1995

LIST OF EQUIPMENT OF MAJOR IMPORTANCE FOR THE CONVENTION

Working paper submitted by Cuba

1.B. Industrial equipment which should be subject to controls

- Fermenters with a capacity of 100 litres or over, with or without a self-sterilization capacity.
- Centrifugal separators with a capacity of 100 litres or over per hour, whether or not self-sterilizable and whether or not possessing additional protection features.
- Settling tanks.
- Filtration systems with an area of 5 sq.m. or over.
- Freeze dryers with a capacity of 50 kg in 24 hours or over, whether sterilizable or not.
- Aerosol chambers with a capacity of 1 cu.m. or over.
- Microencapsulation equipment.

2.B. Equipment of general use

- Laboratories with class I, II and III biological safety level in facilities with a BL-3 or BL-4 biosafety level.
- Fermenters with a total capacity of 50 litres.
- Incubators with a total volume of 50 kg.
- Purification, filtration or concentration equipment in facilities with a BL-3 or BL-4 biosafety level.

