

FAIRTRADE PALESTINE

A meeting with Anan from Olive Co-operative

In the past several years, fair trade initiatives have captured the attention of socially minded consumers and organizers, who have recognized an opportunity to forge more honest trade relations, while emphasizing human stories and political issues behind commodity production. While economic justice activism has mostly focused on Latin America, Africa and some areas of Asia, fair trade has been a relatively new topic of discussion when it comes to Palestine.

5pm, Wed 5th March
J19, Richmond Bldgn.

Olive Cooperative

www.OLIVECOOP.COM

UBU ● ● ● ●

University of Bradford Students' Union

